Dear The Seven Dinners,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the service I received during my recent visit to your restaurant on [insert date]. While I was looking forward to an enjoyable dining experience, unfortunately, the service did not meet my expectations.

The main reasons for my dissatisfaction include:

We waited for 30 minutes before our order was taken, and an additional one hour before the food was served. This delay significantly impacted on the overall experience.

The dish I ordered, salmon salad, was incorrectly prepared/not of expected quality.

The staff appeared inattentive and unresponsive to our requests.

Given the inconvenience I experienced, I would like to kindly request compensation for this situation. An appropriate way to address this issue, from my perspective, would be:

- A full or partial refund of the bill amount.
- A discount or complimentary meal for a future visit.
- An apology from the management with assurance of improved service in the future.

I believe that maintaining a high standard of customer service is important for your establishment, and I hope this feedback can contribute to improvements. Please feel free to contact me at [your contact details] if you need further information regarding this matter.

Thank you for taking the time to address my concerns. I look forward to your response.

Best regards, Joe Brown.
